

BOROUGH OF ROSELAND
ESSEX COUNTY • NEW JERSEY

PROCLAMATION

JACK A. GORDON

WHEREAS, Jack A. Gordon is not only an attorney, a historian and a film maker but a proud resident of the Borough of Roseland and a trustee of the Roseland Landmarks and Historic District Commission; and

WHEREAS, Jack A. Gordon undertook a project of enormous magnitude by researching, writing, producing, directing and co-editing a feature length, historical documentary called "The Bond Force Legacy", chronicling the history of Roseland and examining the lives of two important families to the Roseland and Livingston communities; and

WHEREAS, Jack A. Gordon solicited and obtained the support of several not-for-profit organizations, including The Provident Bank Foundation, Rotary International, The Roseland Landmarks and Historic District Commission and The Roseland Historical Society and he has contributed significant funds of his own to see to the completion of "The Bond Force Legacy"; and

WHEREAS, "The Bond Force Legacy" has been completed and released on DVD and is available for the enjoyment, edification and education of all who view the film; and

WHEREAS, in a further gesture of his love for and support of the Borough of Roseland, Jack A. Gordon has agreed, through his production company Bumble Bee Productions, LLC, to contribute a portion of the proceeds from the sale of each copy of The Bond Force Legacy to the Roseland Historical Society, so the Historical Society can in turn contribute those funds to the Roseland Centennial Celebration Fund, a fund created by Everett Leonard and his son, Richard Leonard so that the Borough can best celebrate its centennial in April of 2008.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mayor Michael A. Pacio, Jr., Mayor the Borough of Roseland hereby present this Proclamation to Jack A. Gordon as a sign and symbol of his commitment to the history of the Borough of Roseland.

Date: August 23, 2005

MAYOR MICHAEL A. PACIO, JR.
